

Vows of Ordination

Moderator: Are you persuaded that you are truly called to the ministry of the Gospel according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ?

Candidates: I am.

Moderator: Are you persuaded that the Holy Scriptures contain all truth required for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined to instruct the people committed to your care from the same Scriptures so that they may also become faithful Christ-followers?

Candidates: I am.

Moderator: Do you accept the doctrine, government, and fellowship of The Christian and Missionary Alliance? And do you commit yourself to faithfully minister the Gospel in its fullness, the promotion of a deeper and higher Christian life, and the work of evangelization both at home and overseas?

Candidates: I do.

Moderator: Do you commit yourself to be faithful and diligent in the practice of personal prayer and devotions in order to keep yourself unspotted from the world and to live a life of purity of heart so that you will minister to others out of what you have first received through your relationship with the living God?

Candidates: I do.

Moderator: Do you commit your life to teach and preach the Gospel, to exalt righteousness, to rebuke evil, to reclaim the erring, to help the poor, to uplift the fallen, to minister to the sick, to comfort those in trouble, to guide and inspire youth, and to serve all people in the spirit of the Master?

Candidates: I do.

Moderator: In the presence of this congregation do you commit yourself to this new trust and responsibility, and promise to discharge your duties in harmony with Scripture and the constitutions and practices of The Christian and Missionary Alliance?

Candidates: I do.

Moderator: The License, Ordination, and Consecration Council, representing the fellowship of The Christian and Missionary Alliance, now solemnly lay hands on you in ordination, setting you apart for the work of the Christian ministry, pledging you our love, our prayers, and our steadfast cooperation so that we may work together on mission for God.
